

Sing, My Tongue, the Glorious Battle

- 1 Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle,
sing the winning of the fray;
now above the cross, the trophy,
sound the loud triumphal lay:
tell how Christ the world's Redeemer,
as a victim won the day.
- 2 Thirty years among us dwelling,
his appointed time fulfilled,
born for this, he met his passion;
this the Savior freely willed;
on the cross the Lamb was lifted,
where his precious blood was spilled.
- 3 He endured the nails and spitting, vinegar, and spear, and reed;
from that holy body pierced blood and water forth proceed; precious flood, which all creation from the stain of sin hath freed.
- 4 To the Trinity be glory
everlasting, as is meet:
equal to the Father, equal to the Son, and Paraclete: God the Three in One, whose praises all created things repeat.

Words: Venantius Honorius Fortunatus, ca. 569; tr. John Mason Neale and others

Music: Trad. French carol; harm. The English Hymnal, 1906

Tune: PICARDY · 8.7.8.7.8.7 · Scripture: Colossians 2:13

Public domain.