

Rejoice, Believer, in the Lord

529

1. Re - joice, be - liev - er, in the Lord, who makes your cause his own;
 2. Weak as you are, you shall not faint or faint - ing shall not die!
 3. Though un - per - ceived by mor - tal sense, faith sees him al - ways near!
 4. As sure - ly as he o - ver - came and tri - umphed once for you, the hope that's built up - on his word shall ne'er be o - ver - thrown.

 For Je - sus, strength of ev - 'ry saint, will aid you from on high.
 A guide, a glo - ry, sure de - fense; then what have you to fear?
 so sure - ly you that love his name shall in him tri - umph too.

WORDS: John Newton, 1779

MUSIC: William Croft, 1708; harm. William Henry Monk, 19th cent.

ST. ANNE

CM

Philippians 4:4