

Lord, My Weak Thought in Vain Would Climb

- 1 Lord, my weak thought in vain would climb
to search the starry vault profound;
in vain would wing her flight sublime to find creation's utmost bound.
- 2 But weaker yet that thought must prove to search thy great eternal plan, thy sov'reign counsels, born of love long ages ere the world began.
- 3 When my dim reason would demand
why that, or this, thou dost ordain, by some vast deep I seem to stand, whose secrets I must ask in vain.
- 4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
and all is dark as night to me, here, as on solid rock, I rest —
that so it seemeth good to thee.
- 5 Be this my joy, that evermore thou rulest all things at thy will;
thy sov'reign wisdom I adore,
and calmly, sweetly, trust thee still.
