

I Love to Tell the Story

- 1 I love to tell the story
of unseen things above,
of Jesus and his glory,
of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
because I know 'tis true;
it satisfies my longings
as nothing else can do.
- R I love to tell the story,
'twill be my theme in glory to tell the old, old story
of Jesus and his love.
- 2 I love to tell the story;
more wonderful it seems than all the golden fancies of all our golden dreams.
I love to tell the story,
it did so much for me;
and that is just the reason I tell it now to thee.
- 3 I love to tell the story;
'tis pleasant to repeat what seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story,
for some have never heard the message of salvation from God's own holy Word.
- 4 I love to tell the story;
for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it, like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song,
'twill be the old, old story,
that I have loved so long.
