 3. Yes, ear and hand, and thought and will, use all in
 4. Tread them still down; and then I know, these hands with ren - dered hands in thine. At length my will is will - ing ear once more; thy bonds are free - dom; thy dear slav - 'ry still! Self's wea - ry lib - er - thy gifts o - ver - flow; and will - ing ears shall all thine own, glad vas - sal of a Sav - ior's throne.

 let me stay with thee, to toil, en - dure, o - bey.
 ties I cast be - neath thy feet; there keep them fast.
 hear the tone which tells me thou and I are one.
