

278 The Spirit Breathes upon the Word

1. The Spir - it breathes up - on the Word, and
 2. A glo - ry gilds the sa - cred page, ma -
 3. The Hand that gave it still sup - plies the
 4. Let ev - er - last - ing thanks be thine for
 5. My soul re - joic - es to pur - sue the brings the truth to sight; pre - cepts and prom - is - jes - tic, like the sun: it gives a light to gra - cious light and heat: his truths up - on the

 such a bright dis - play as makes a world of steps of him I love, till glo - ry breaks up -

es af - ford a sanc - ti - fy - ing light.
 ev - 'ry age; it gives, but bor - rows none.
 na - tions rise; they rise, but nev - er set.
 dark - ness shine with beams of heav'n - ly day.
 on my view in bright - er worlds a - bove.

WORDS: William Cowper, 1779

MUSIC: Irish melody; arr. Charles V. Stanford, 1906

ST. COLUMBA

CM

John 14:26