

306 My People, Give Ear, Attend to My Word

Psalm 76

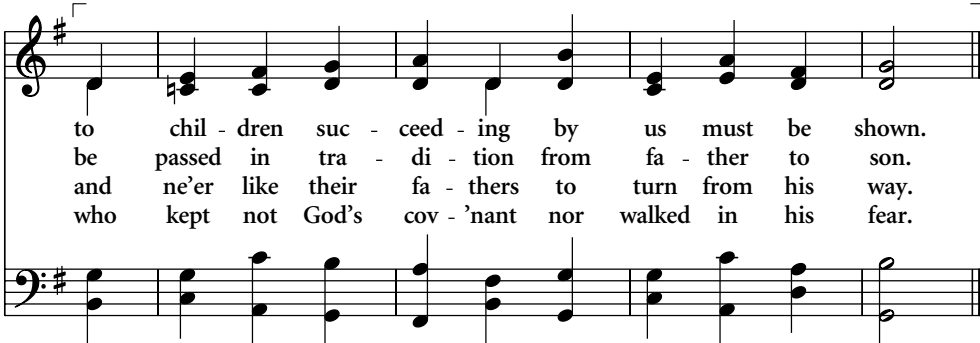

1. My peo - ple, give ear, at - tend to my word,
 2. In - struct - ing our sons we glad - ly re - cord
 3. Let chil - dren thus learn from his - to - ry's light
 4. The sto - ry be told, to warn and re - strain, in par - a - bles new deep truths shall be heard;

 the prais - es, the works, the might of the Lord,
 to hope in our God and walk in his sight,
 of hearts that were hard, re - bel - lious, and vain,

the won - der - ful sto - ry our fa - thers made known for he has com - mand - ed that what he has done the God of their fa - thers to fear and o - bey, of sol - diers who fal - tered when bat - tle was near,

to chil - dren suc - ceed - ing by us must be shown.
 be passed in tra - di - tion from fa - ther to son.
 and ne'er like their fa - thers to turn from his way.
 who kept not God's cov - 'nant nor walked in his fear.

5. God's won - der - ful works to them he had shown,
 6. Un - harmed through the sea, where per - ished their foe,
 7. He gave them the land, a her - i - tage fair;
 8. His ser - vant he called, a shep - herd of sheep,

his mar - vel - ous deeds their fa - thers had known;
 he caused them with ease and safe - ty to go;
 the na - tions that dwelt in wick - ed - ness there from tend - ing his flock the peo - ple to keep;

he made for their path - way the wa - ters di - vide, his ho - ly land gain - ing, in peace they were brought he drove out be - fore them with great o - ver - throw, so Da - vid, their shep - herd, with wis - dom and might his glo - ri - ous pil - lar of cloud was their guide.

 to dwell in the moun - tain the Lord's hand had bought.
 and gave to his peo - ple the tents of the foe.
 pro - tect - ed and fed them and led them a - right.
