

O Lord, I Will Extol You

- 1 O Lord, I will extol you,
for you have lifted me;
my foes you kept from boasting,
denied them victory.
O Lord, my God, I pleaded that you might heal and save;
you brought my soul from Sheol, restored me from the grave.
- 2 His holy name remember;
you saints, the Lord now praise;
his anger lasts a moment,
his favor all our days;
for though the tears of weeping
may tarry for a night,
there comes a shout of gladness
when dawns the morning light.
- 3 In prosp'rous days I boasted,
"Unmoved I shall remain," for, Lord, by your good favor my mountain you maintained.
But when your face was hidden,
my heart was terrified.
To you, O Lord, I pleaded;
for mercy, Lord, I cried.
- 4 What profit if I perish,
if I descend to death?
Shall dust proclaim your praises or speak your faithfulness?
O Lord, on me have mercy,
and my petition hear;
that you maybe my helper,
in mercy, Lord, appear.
- 5 You turned my grief to dancing,
from sackcloth set me free.
You clothed me 'round with gladness;
I shall not silent be.
My soul will sing your praises,
your name will I adore;
O Lord, my God, I thank you,
both now and evermore!
