

My Lord Has Garments So Wondrous Fine

1 My Lord has garments so wondrous fine,
and myrrh their texture fills;
its fragrance reached to this heart of mine—
with joy my being thrills.

R Out of the ivory palaces,
into a world of woe,
only his great eternal love
made my Savior go.

2 His life had also its sorrow sore,
for aloes had a part;
and when I think of the cross he bore,
my eyes with tear-drops start.

3 In garments glorious he will come
to open wide the door;
and I shall enter my heavenly home
to dwell forevermore.
