

Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken

- 1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
all to leave and follow thee;
destitute, despised, forsaken, thou from hence my all shalt be:
perish ev'ry fond ambition,
all I've sought, and hoped or known;
yet how rich is my condition,
God and heav'n are still my own!
- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
they have left my Savior too;
human hearts and looks deceive me;
thou art not, like man, untrue;
and, while thou shalt smile upon me, God of wisdom, love, and might,
foes may hate and friends may shun me;
show thy face, and all is bright.
- 3 Man may trouble and distress me,
'twill but drive me to thy breast;
life with trials hard may press me, heav'n will bring me sweeter rest.
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
while thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
were that joy unmixed with thee.
- 4 Take, my soul, thy full salvation, rise o'er sin and fear and care;
joy to find in ev'ry station,
something still to door bear;
think what Spirit dwells within thee,
what a Father's smile is thine,
what a Savior died to win thee:
child of heav'n, shouldst thou repine?
- 5 Hasten on from grace to glory,
armed by faith and winged by prayer;
heav'n's eternal days before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission, swift shall pass thy pilgrim days;
hope shall change to glad fruition,
faith to sight, and prayer to praise.
